

Sr. Luella Dames, CPPS Convention Scholarship

This scholarship was established by the Duchesne Branch of the St. Louis Chapter of the National Association of Pastoral Musicians to honor Sister Luella Dames, CPPS, founding director of the Duchesne Branch.

In honor of Sr. Luella's commitment to the association, the St. Louis Chapter will present an annual award of $500 to assist an active pastoral musician, who has never attended an NPM convention, to attend the annual convention of the association.

The award is intended to encourage pastoral musicians to improve their knowledge and skills in music ministry.

Eligibility of Fund Applicants:

Member of the National Association of Pastoral Musicians

Member of the St. Louis Chapter

Actively involved in music ministry

Has never attended a national NPM Convention

How may the award funds be used?

The $500 award may be used toward registration/travel/lodging/meals for the national convention.
